

Addressed By	Addressed To	Question
Sukhvinder Singh	Jagan Mohan Reddy	Why was Raguram Krishna Raju being physically abused and threatened after going against your stance to the point that he had to exile from the state for a few days? Is this how criticism and democracy is treated in your state?
Ramesh Chennithala	Narendra Damordas Modi, Amit Shah	JNU is known for its controversies regarding "anti-nationalism" etc, and the Akhil Bharatiya Vidyarthi Parishad is said to be a part of JNU. Interestingly, both BJP and ABVP belong to the RSS Family, following identical ideologies. If the ABVP is a part of the JNU institution then, is the ABVP not also part of JNU's 'radical/extremist' tendencies?
Kiren Rijju	Akbaruddin Owaisi	Would you mind explaining, your communal statements "we (Muslims) will finish 100 crore Hindus if the police were removed for 15 minutes"? Aren't they representative of his bigotry?
Subramaniam Swamy	Malikharjun Kharge	The Manipur Case has been one of the most intriguing in both the Houses of Parliament since its Monsoon Session. Numerous instances of the Ministers questioning the BJP Government regarding

		the same have arisen. Amit Shah, the Union Home Minister, still awaits his opportunity to speak whenever questioned on the BJP's plan for action since the Honourable President of the Indian National Congress, Mallikarjun Kharge keeps dodging the question because he remains fixated on the Honourable Prime Minister's presence and response only. What is of more importance to you, your political opportunism or discussing the solutions to the devastating loss of life and the unsettling dilemma of the citizens of the State?
Digvijay Singh	Narendra Damordas Modi	Farmers suicide had rose sharply during Modi government tenure. The farmers had resorted to all manners of agitations to protest against this travesty. but not even a single representative of BJP had acknowledged their presence or taken action . Do the lives of poor farmers not matter, if they do then why were they ignored, no action taken and not even an acknowledgement given?
Bhagwat Mann	Narendra Damordas Modi, Amit Shah	In 2014, PM Modi stated that upon becoming the prime minister he would give full statehood to Delhi. But he has completely contradicted his statement as the recent ordinance bill passed in the Lok Sabha, what is his explanation for this?
Rahul Gandhi	Narendra Damordas Modi	Once upon a time, you travelled in his private plane, now, he travels with you for

		your foreign visits. And coincidentally, after your every foreign visit, This 'he', the iconic Mr. Adani signs a contract in that country. The Adani Conglomerate was once present in only one to two sectors in the country, now they are leading in about 7 sectors. What is the secret of Mr. Adani's humongous growth in the last 9 years? When I last asked these questions, I was soon disqualified from the Parliament. By the way, was there a drastic drop in your net worth after Hindenburg exposed the Adani Scandal ?
Rahul Gandhi	Anurag Thakur	Your party has always been vocally supportive of Women Sports. But, when there was a hefty charge on one of your ministers for allegedly sexually assaulting a female wrestler, many of our top female wrestlers protested no matter what, under the scorching heat of the sun or in heavy rain for three long months. You maintained silence and there was no action taken against this 'Bahubali' minister of yours. When they win the medals, they are lauded, and the sports ministry takes the credit, but when they actually need the support of the government, they are alienated. Are these your party's 'acche din'?
Narendra Damodardas Modi	Siddaramiah	The Karnataka Government has claimed that there has been a shortage of cash for development in the state. They have also approved a 1 crore tender to refurbish the Rajiv Gandhi Statue after halting the work for a statue dedicated to Bhuvaneshvari Devi, a Kannada identity. Is this not Congress' Duplicity? How do you respond to this?

Narendra Damordas Modi	Ashok Gehlot	Rape cases against women, girls, dalits have been ever increasing in Rajasthan shredding law and order. Hon'ble CM of Rajasthan has claimed previously that more than 50 percent of these cases are fake. How do you justify this? Aren't you disrespecting these victims by denying their suffering and misery?
Malikarjun Kharge	Amit Shah	Shahji, you've been accused of "horse trading" in the past multiple times even to the extent of bribing a MLA Soma Bhai Patel in Gujarat with 10 crore rupees to switch parties which he admitted to on video. This clearly brings about an illusion of free choice when changing parties which cannot be accepted in our country. What is your defence for this heinous action?